

Review Request Form

Decision to Discontinue an Investigation

Requesting a Review

If you have been informed that the investigation into your complaint has been discontinued you can request a review. To request a review of this decision, please complete this form and return it to us either:

- by post, to Review Unit, Fiosrú, Office of the Police Ombudsman, 150 Upper Abbey Street, Dublin 1, D01 FT73 or
- by email, to review@fiosru.ie

You can also request a review online at www.fiosru.ie.

We will confirm receipt of your completed form within 5 working days. If you do not hear from us, please let us know.

The reference number for your review will be the same as for your initial complaint. If you have any questions about this form, please email review@fiosru.ie.

You must request a review of the decision within 28 days of receiving your decision letter.

The information we need and why

To review a decision, we need:

- Your details, including your contact details, in case these have changed.
- The reference number of your complaint. You can find this on any letter Fiosrú sent you about your complaint.
- The reason why you think Fiosrú has made an incorrect decision to discontinue the investigation into your complaint.

Note: Fiosrú needs this information to perform our functions under the Policing, Security and Community Safety Act 2024. Further information on data protection and how Fiosrú uses your personal data is available on our website www.fiosru.ie

Accessibility

If you have accessibility requirements or practical needs in requesting a review, please contact our Access Officer by email at access.officer@fiosru.ie or call 0818 600 800 or (01) 871 6727.

If you are under 18 years of age

If you are between 16 and 18 years of age, your review request may be treated as that made by an adult. If so, Fiosrú will not need your parent/guardian's consent.

If you are under 16 years of age, your parent/guardian's consent will have been requested at the initial complaint stage. This consent will carry over to the review process.

If you are requesting this review on behalf of someone else

If you are requesting a review on behalf of someone else and they gave their consent at the initial complaint stage, this will carry over to the review. If consent has not already been given, Fiosrú now needs their consent to carry out a request for a review.

Your complaint details

The reference number of your complaint: You can find this on any letter we sent you about your complaint

Why was the investigation into your complaint discontinued?

You can find this reason on the letter we sent you to let you know that the investigation into your complaint was being discontinued.

1. Fiosrú has found that your complaint is frivolous. ☐
2. You have withdrawn your complaint. ☐
3. You have disengaged from the complaints process. ☐
4. Fiosrú has found that your complaint is vexatious. ☐
5. Fiosrú has found that your complaint is false or misleading. ☐
6. Further investigation is not necessary, reasonably practicable or proportionate having regard to all the circumstances. ☐
7. Continuing with the investigation would interfere, or conflict, with the functions of another public body, including An Garda Síochána. ☐
8. Continuing with the investigation would interfere with legal proceedings before a court or tribunal in the State. ☐
9. You have confirmed that you are satisfied that your complaint has been resolved. ☐

It is important to Fiosrú that you understand the reason for our decision. If it is unclear to you why we decided to discontinue the investigation, a member of the Review Unit will get in touch to explain this to you. If you did not understand the reason for our decision, please tick here. ☐

Why do you think that the decision to discontinue the investigation into your complaint is incorrect?

This should relate to the reason that Fiosrú gave you for deciding the investigation into your complaint would be discontinued.

If your request for a review is outside the time limit

The legal time limit to request a review is within 28 days of receiving the letter with your decision. Fiosrú can extend this time limit if it considers there is good reason to do this. If you received our decision more than 28 days ago, please let us know if there is good reason(s) why you did not request a review sooner.

Use of information

If your complaint is sent to An Garda Síochána for resolution or investigated by Fiosrú, the Garda Síochána and the Gardaí complained of will be given information from your complaint form. Subject to applicable data protection law, it is possible that information gathered by Fiosrú may be also be given to third parties such as the Director of Public Prosecutions for use in other criminal or civil proceedings. For a full list of who Fiosrú might share your personal information with, please review our data protection and privacy policies, available from our website below.

Submission of request for review

Before you submit your request for a review, please note that it is a criminal offence under section 226 of the Policing Security and Community Safety Act 2024 to knowingly supply "false or misleading information" to Fiosrú. This could result in a fine and/or a prison sentence.

Please tick the box to show that you understand. ☐
